Dear Sir,

I am directed to submit herewith Resolution No 36 passed unanimously by the First All-Mysore Non-Gazetted Officers' Conference held at Bangalore, on the 24th and 25th July 1948 The Dewan, who was pleased to open the Conference and our Hon'ble Ministers, who either opened or presided over the various sectional activities connected with the Conference were pleased to compliment the Conference for its efficient organization and discipline, its awareness to realities, and its sense of responsibility as evidenced by the Code of Conduct that was so readily and whole-heartedly adopted on the delegates' own initiative In view of all this the Dewan and our Hon'ble Ministers were pleased, in the course of their speeches, to promise sympathetic and consideration of our Resolutions and representations The Executive Committee accordingly request that favourable orders of Government on the enclosed Resolution be kindly communicated to the Association at a very early date, as Non-Gazetted Officers in all parts of the State are most eagerly awaiting the same.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully

B S Gudappa
Hon General Secretary

Subd

The resolution purports to recommend to Govt for the grant of the same revised scales of pay to the DTs employees as have been sanctioned to the employees of the Govt Departments. All the District Boards are agreeable to adopt the revised scales in respect of these employees Orders sanctioning the same have already been issued in the case of some DBs Appd a reply will be sent accordingly

Resolution 36

36. Mover: The Secretary, M.G.O's Assn., (Narasimharajpur)
Seconder: Sri. M. H. Rangaswami Iyengar (Hunsur)

This Conference resolves that Government be requested to insist that Local Bodies to which Government have lent the services of their own officials should pay these officials salaries at the rates recently sanctioned by Government, failing which they will be withdrawn and re-posted to their respective Departments so that they may get the benefit of the revised scales at least in their own places.
